A dream came o'er me as I lay With head on pillow pressed, Of such a splendid fitting Coat And Pants, and such a Vest.

Me thought that as I walked abroad.

All eyes on me were cast,

But shi my dream it bassed away T'was far too bright to last. But still before my eager gaze Would come the dream of other days.

One day as I walked out alone, One day as I walked out alone,
My mind with sadness fraught
I wondered if in this good town
Such Clothing could be bought;
Just then a friend was passing by
Who saw the sadness in my eye,
So kindly asked me, him to tell
What grief o'er me had cast a spell
